

Car Warriors – Another Day at the Races

It is the war torn future. Crash-up-derbies using armed vehicles have become more popular than ever. This new breed of racing sport includes all sorts of guns, battle equipment, and tricks. The winner will either be the first player to cross the finish line or will be the last car standing.

Car Warriors – Another Day at the Races will use a mixture of rules from various automotive combat games, such as, Battlecars, Dark Future, Axles and Alloys, and Road Rage V8. It will be played with 3D car and building models on full color 3D terrain.

Tournament / Regular Game:

Car Warriors – Another Day at the Races is a single event (one race).

Player Experience:

No experience with miniatures or any of the game systems are required. Children under 10 should be accompanied by a parent/guardian due to violent nature of the game and the complexities of the movement and game rules. Players are encouraged to bring their own pencil and tape measure.

Variant:

Car Warriors – Another Day at the Races will use a mixture of rules from various automotive combat games, such as, Battlecars, Dark Future, Axles and Alloys, and Road Rage V8.

Tournament Structure:

The winner of the game will be the last vehicle standing or the first player to cross the finish line.