

Godforged – Sword of the God-King

There came a day when the gods died. In Azitolca, the mage-priests seek for the destined mortals who will become the new God-King and his pantheon. Those who can defeat the current champion in battle will become general of Azitolca, Sword of the God-King.

Create a character using the Exemplar Godforged rules, and duel other players in small-unit melee.

Tournament / Regular Game:

Tournament

Player Experience:

Basic rules advice will be available. Minimal experience with Exemplar is recommended.

Variant:

The current version of the Exemplar rules, as adapted to the Godforged setting.

Tournament Structure:

The initial matches will be between 4-6 characters each in an arena. Characters fight until last man standing (not necessarily death, but often). The winner in each arena will then go on to the final arena (same rules). The winner of the tournament can then challenge the reigning champion (last year's winner) for the title. This last is a bonus round with no prize except bragging rights – win the finals, and you win the tournament.
