

Havoc: The Hundred Years War

Havoc: the Hundred Years War is a card game where players compete in a series of battles by recruiting soldiers to form sets (poker hands) to win victory points. "Cry Havoc!" to start the battle when you are prepared! The winner has the best poker hand based on a six suit deck, adding more hand options. Wild cards are added call Dogs of War that can be used to retrieve soldiers from the battlefield or to draw extra resources. Eight skirmishes, one king!

Tournament / Regular Game:

Regular Game

Player Experience:

No experience required.

Variant:

Basic Game. 6 Players suggested per table, but will split as required to accommodate.

Tournament Structure:

Highest point total will win. If multiple tables are run, winner will be determined by the person who had the highest score on the table with the highest average score (i.e. the person whom had a more competitive table will win).

Check out the game here:

<http://www.boardgamegeek.com/boardgame/19363/havoc-the-hundred-years-war>